NUMB 2,400

WEDNESDAY, MAY 18. 1743.

Tunis, April 15.

WE foreſee that Things will very ſpeedily run into Confuſion here, and perhaps expoſe us to great Inconveniencies. This Morning the Prince, Son to our Bey, and General of his Troops, ſent for the Engliſh Conſul, and ask'd him, in great Wrath, What the Reaſon was that his Nation, like all others, had not ſent a Man of War, with proper Preſents, to renew the Peace? The Conſul very modeſtly anſwer'd, That the Engliſh Power at Sea ſeemed to diſpenſe with thoſe Ceremonies, but that if he expected it, he would immediately write Home about it. Why do ſo, return'd the Prince, and if in three Months, from this Day, I don't ſee one of your Men of War, with proper Preſents, to perſuade the Renewal of the Peace, depend on it the Bey ſhall declare War.——This too, I would not have you forget when you are writing. The ſame Day he lecture'd alſo the Chief of the French Nation, telling him he would ſuffer no Veſſel under the French Flag to enter their Ports, if he did not bring ſomething for the Service of two new Forts the Bey is building. In order to ſhew he would be as good as his Word, he, in the Afternoon, forbid two Tartans of that Nation, from Algiers, to come in here, under Pretence, that he was informed they had the Plague amongſt them. There are, at preſent, 18 Corſairs belonging to this City at Sea.

Rome, May 4. On Monday laſt Count Cuſani, Ambaſſador from the City of Milan, after putting up over his Gate the Arms of the Pope, the Queen of Hungary, and the City which he repreſents, went firſt to Cardinal Alexander Albani, and from thence to Monte-Cavallo, where he had an Audience in Ceremony of the Pope, to notify to him in form the Death of Cardinal Stampa, Archbiſhop of Milan. He went from thence to Cardinal Valenti's, Secretary of State. We look'd upon it as a Thing certain, that M. Viſconti would certainly have had this Archbiſhoprick; but, of a ſudden, we begin to apprehend, that Monſignor Cavalchini, Secretary to the Council, will be the Man. He is deſcended from a very noble Family in the Novareſe; and as that Country is at preſent under the Dominion of the King of Sardinia, we believed that would have prejudic'd his Intereſt; but it has ſo happen'd, that, on the contrary, the King of Sardinia moſt warmly eſpouſes him, and will, in all Likelihood, obtain for him the Chair. One Thing only ſtands in his Way. As ſoon as it was publickly known that his Intereſt was ſo great, the Friends of M. Sorbelloni, Nuncio at the Court of Poland, have revived their Sollicitations on his Behalf, from a Suppoſition that if the Diſpute grows warm, his Holineſs may be induc'd to think of a Third Perſon, to avoid preferring one Intereſt to the other.

Naples, April 30. Yeſterday in the Evening her Majeſty was ſafely delivered of a Daughter, who was ſoon after baptized by the Nuncio, and named Mary-Elizabeth. Upon this Occaſion all the Artillery on board the Gallies, as well as on all our Caſtles, were fired, Te Deum ſung in all our Churches, and our Archbiſhop, Cardinal Spinelli, with the Prelates, Nobility, and Gentry of the Kingdom, went to pay their Compliments to their Majeſties. An Engliſh Captain of a Man of War arrived here Yeſterday, and To-day deliver'd a Meſſage to M. Montalegre, Secretary of State.

Prague, May 13. The Ceremony of her Majeſty's Coronation was perform'd here Yeſterday with extraordinary Magnificence; and, at the ſame Time, the States of the Kingdom acknowledged his Royal Highneſs the Grand Duke of Tuſcany as Co-Regent and Aſſociate with her Majeſty. Abundance of Gold and Silver Medals were ſtruck upon this Occaſion, and given away; having on one Side her Majeſty's Buſt, with this Legend, MARIA THERESA AUGUSTA.—On the Reverſe, Fortune ſitting in Royal Robes, covering with her Shield the Electoral Diadem and the Palladium, with this Inſcription, FELICITATIS PUBLICÆ REPARATIO. In the Exergue, Unctio Regia Pragæ, XII. Maij MDCCXLIII. This being the Anniverſary of her Majeſty's Birth, when ſhe enters into the 27th Year of her Age, we have celebrated with the utmoſt Joy; and, as an happy Omen thereof, about Three in the Afternoon, arriv'd an Expreſs, with the following Letter from Prince Charles of Lorrain.

'I have the Honour to inform your Majeſty, that Yeſterday, being the 9th of this Month, we attack'd the Bavarians at Erblach, on the Banks of the Inn, and have the good Luck to beat them, and put them entirely to the Rout. We have carried off four Cannon, and five Standards, and about 800 Priſoners, as your Majeſty will perceive by the following Liſt, which was drawn up as exactly as the Shortneſs of the Time would permit. General Berlichingen, who commanded the Vanguard, contributed not a little to the Succeſs of the Affair by his Courage and Conduct, and eſpecially by his Ability in overcoming the Diſadvantages of Ground. The Enemy was extremely well poſted, and it was not without Difficulty that our Troops drove them from the Eminencies they poſſeſs'd. The Engagement laſted five Hours with inexpreſſible Fury. The Number of our Kill'd and Wounded may be about 400. I felicitate your Majeſty upon this happy opening the Campaign, and look on it as a Preſage of that good Fortune that will continue to accompany your Majeſty's Army.'

N. B. The Liſt is the ſame with that publiſh'd in this Paper of Monday laſt.

Manheim, May 13. The Day before Yeſterday the Prince of Naſſau Weilbourg arrived here with a very numerous Retinue. The Prince de Dombes is likewiſe come hither from Heidleberg, and the Duke de Biron from Alſace. Laſt Week an Edict was publiſhed here, and throughout all the Electorate, by which his Electoral Highneſs prohibits, under very ſevere Penalties, the carrying any kind of Proviſion out of his Dominions. The French Troops which were quartered at Frankthenhall and Neuſtadt are gone to Worms and Oppenheim, there are likewiſe about 1600 Men march'd out of Ladenbourg, but where they are to march we cannot ſay. The Motions of the French are, indeed, very ſurprizing; they march in a Hurry from one Place to another, and no ſooner arrive than they march again, very frequently, back to the Place from whence they came. Whether all this proceeds from Policy, or the want of it, from being confounded themſelves, or from a Deſire to confound others, Time muſt diſcover. One Thing, in the mean time, is certain enough, that the Country is eat up and deſtroyed.

Hanover, May 20. His Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland arrived here this Morning, about 10 o'Clock, in perfect Health.

Hague, May 24. We have juſt now receiv'd the Vote of the Biſhop of Spire in the Imperial Dyet at Ratisbon, transferred for the preſent to Franckfort. This Vote, or Suffrage, is in Writing, and is look'd upon as a very ſingular Piece. It runs thus:

'His Eminency the Cardinal de Schonborn, as Biſhop of Spire, and Provoſt of Weiſſenbourg, gives moſt humble Thanks to his Imperial Majeſty for the Earneſtneſs he has ſhewn, to ſee the Publick Tranquility and Safety of his dear Country, of which it has been for ſome Years paſt deprived, ſpeedily reſtored. His Eminency ſincerely wiſhes to ſee an End put to the preſent Miſeries of Germany, and to the Apprehenſions the People are under of feeling ſtill greater; and as he obſerves by the Commiſſorial Decrees of May 16, Auguſt 13, and Sept. 24. 1742. as well as by the Propoſition of the Director of Saltzbourg, it is deſired that the Empire ſhould charge herſelf, in Conjunction with the Maritime Powers, with a Mediation for re-eſtabliſhing Peace; in order to the bringing about of which, the principal Points to be conſidered are An? and Quomodo?

'That is to ſay, Whether it is proper to charge herſelf with that Mediation? And, Secondly, How it is to be done? As to the firſt Queſtion, the Nature of the Mediation itſelf ſeems to demand that it ſhould be firſt of all certain, whether the Powers at War will accept this Mediation; and in order to its having a happy Iſſue, the firſt Step ſeems to be, the obtaining an Anſwer to this important Queſtion. It is, therefore, the Advice of his Eminency, to obtain the Conſent of the principal Powers, before we proceed farther as to the Reſolution of the Queſtion, An? For as to the Queſtion, Quomodo, that will be eaſily, and of Courſe, reſolved, when the former is once ſettled.

'As to the reſt, his Eminency knows how ſmall Abilities he has, and how little he is capable of directing his Imperial Majeſty, or the States of the Empire. He, therefore, contents himſelf with beſeeching God, that ſuch of the States as have hitherto remained neuter, and eſcaped thereby any Share in theſe Troubles, may remain ſtill in the ſame Situation, and that the innocent Circles may remain untouch'd by the Flame of War, ſince they have done nothing to excite it, &c.' Upon this Suffrage the Concluſum of the College of Princes was drawn, which has been publiſh'd in the News-Papers.

The Council of State have iſſued the following Liſt of the Generals who are to command the 20,000 Men deſigned for the Aſſiſtance of the Queen of Hungary, and of the Troops which are to compoſe that Body.

The said Sloop is Square sterned, and British Built, and now lying in the Stream against the Tower of London,

An Inventory whereof may be seen at the Kings Warehouse, and on board the said Sloop.

To be seen,

Opposite to St. Clement's Church in the Strand, at One Shilling each Person,

THE most beautiful Representation of the King of FRANCE's Gardens at VERSAILES, with a very large View of the Country adjoining; painted in the most masterly Manner by the famous PATEL, Painter to the King of France. In this excellent Piece is represented the King of France returning from Hunting in his open Coach, with his Nobility and Gentry attending; as also his Guards, Horse and Foot, waiting before his Palace to receive him, all performed in the nicest Order and Regularity; with Numbers of Figures too tedious here to mention. Likewise the Palace, which is a magnificent Piece of Building, and the Offices and Courts adjoining. There is also a Prospect of the fine Gardens, with the Basons and Fountains, and Canals so large, as to contain Shipping in them; which, with the Beds of Flowers, Greens, Walks, &c. are magnified to so great a Degree by the Help of a Glass suitable to the Purpose, as to be allowed, by all the Nobility, Gentry, &c. who have favour'd us with their Company, to far surpass even Nature itself.

The so-much Fam'd HYPO-DROPS.

WHich in a few Days infallibly cure HYPOCHONDRIACK MELANCHOLY in MEN, and the VAPOURS in WOMEN, so as never to return again, be they ever so severe, or of many Years standing, and even after all other Remedies have prov'd ineffectual: and that by immediately striking at the very Root or true Cause, as well as remedying the Effects, of those perplexing Maladies and all their Variety of Symptoms, by which they mimick, by Turns, almost all the Diseases poor Mortals are afflicted with, and have their Rise from a depraved Appetite, vicious Ferment in the Stomach, and Indigestion of Food, whence proceed Crudities and flatulent or windy Disorders in the first Passages, ill Fumes, sour Belchings, Cholick, and Uneasiness in the Bowels; which Crudities, offend the Nerves, and, by Consent of Parts, affect the Head, and produce sometimes Giddiness, Dimness of Sight, confused Thoughts, pertinacious Watchings, troublesome Sleep, Frights, groundless Fears, and the deepest Melancholy, with direful Views and terrible Apprehensions; at other times, Fits, Flushing Heats, Reachings, Faintness, Lowness and Sinking of Spirits, Palpitation of the Heart, Starting, Tremblings, and Twitchings in the Limbs and other Parts, with many convulsive Disorders, sharp Pains, fix'd or wandering Pain and Weakness in the Back, and other, almost innumerable and grievous, Symptoms, which miserably afflict vast Numbers of both Sexes.

All which Symptoms, in their sharpest Paroxysms, these so much fam'd and most pleasant Drops, (which are Chymically prepar'd from the most valuable Specificks in the Mineral, Vegetable, and Animal Kingdoms, and exalted to the highest Degree of Perfection possible) instantly quell, and at the same time annihilate their real Cause, directly bringing the Stomach into right Order, creating a good Appetite, rectifying the Digestion, occasioning laudable Chyle, and, of course, good Blood, Plenty of calm, free, and chearful Spirits, a regular Circulation of all the Fluids, and Strength of Nerves; so that both Cause and Effects of Melancholy and Vapours are thoroughly removed by them, almost on the Spot, as the many Thousands of both Sexes they have perfectly cured evince.

Whoever takes them for 3 Days only, will be sensible they are absolutely to be depended upon for an effectual and lasting Cure, and certain it is, that no Medicine upon Earth can equal them; be careful therefore to have the right Drops, which are to be had only at Mrs. Holt's, at the Cross-Keys and Star in Cornhill, below the Royal Exchange, at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle with printed Directions at large.

The only short and infallible Cure

For that reigning Disease the SCURVY, and all Scorbutick Humours, tho' arrived to the highest and most inveterate Degree, or of ever so many Years standing, and that without any sensible Evacuation or the least Purging, which by an unaccountable Mistake is generally advised, although always found rather to increase and confirm the Scurvy than cure it.

By the so much famed and most pleasant Chymical DROPS:

WHICH, without the least Trouble, Confinement, or any Disorder whatever, do at once strike at the true Cause of the Scurvy, and intirely destroy it, and all Scorbutick Humours and Effects, Root and Branch, so as never to return again, as many Thousands of both Sexes have experienced; and as all who take them, in 3 Days time will be convinced; for they almost instantly alter the morbid State of the Juices, purify the Blood, sweeten all the Fluids, cleanse them from Impurities, and directly clear the whole Habit from all Spots, Blotches, black and blue Marks, Itchings, foul Eruptions, or Breakings out, Weariness of the Limbs, languid Heaviness of the whole Body, wandering Pains, Weakness of the Back, and all the vast Variety of Symptoms by which the Scurvy imitates and often lies concealed under the Appearance of the Rheumatism, and many other Distempers.

And for strengthening the Stomach, immediately creating a good Appetite, causing a regular and easy Digestion of Food, and curing all windy Effects and Disorders of the first Passages (whence proceed Head-achs, Vapours and other Indispositions) no Bitters nor any other Medicine upon Earth can compare with them, insomuch that besides infallibly curing the Scurvy in all its Shapes and Appearances, they also assuredly and immediately cure the Green-sickness in Virgins, Worms of all Kinds in young or old, and almost all other Chronick Diseases, (which are chiefly occasioned by Indigestion and flatulent Crudities in the Stomach and Bowels) and certainly prevent Fevers, Agues, and other acute Illnesses.

They are wonderfully Cordial and Restorative, strengthen and enliven the whole Machine, and soon as taken, make the Patient pleasantly Lightsome, Brisk and Vigorous to admiration, and are good for all Sorts of Persons, to preserve as well as to procure a sound and healthy State of Body.

But the great Reputation these so much fam'd and pleasant Chymical Drops have so universally gain'd among Persons of Eminence, for their suddenly and infallibly curing the Scurvy and all Scorbutick Humours, and other Chronick Diseases, in such an easy and agreeable Manner, have occasioned many to imitate them, some under the same, and others under other Names: Be careful therefore not to be deceiv'd; but be sure to have the Right, which by the Author's special Appointment, are to be had only at the Gentlewomen's, at the Two Blue Posts, in Haydon-Yard, in the Minories, at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with Directions.
